There's been a good deal of misinformation about a boycott resolution from both sides. It's not before the Council and I doubt it will be, or that it would pass if it was.

Subject: dealing with terrorists?

Councilors,

On Wednesday I received a phone call from a woman identifying herself as a worker with "Mass Survey". When I asked, she said she didn't know for whom this survey was being done.

After i declined to answer the first few questions, she asked what I thought about the city council hearing testimony from terrorists. I said that "terrorist" was surely someone's definition. She said that the "terrorist" organization was BDF. Understanding the reference as being to an organization seeking to place sanctions on Israel to demand better policies for Palestinians, I said that I was not troubled by that. Then she hung up.

I think it would be reasonable for Cambridge City Council to deal with this if the City must make decisions about some relevant activities. I heard that one city in the US decided to stop "exchanges of police with Israel".
